

The Art of Caring...

This small business believes in giving back

From the outside, it could be just about any local business, but step inside - you'll either be greeted by a dog or asked to brush the cat. This is no ordinary art gallery...

and Tom Head, owner of ABREU GALLERY, is no ordinary individual.

You see, ordinary people do ordinary things...

David Ballard & Theresa Mandarino
CHILDREN'S RECEIVING HOME –

“We approached Tom for advice on how to improve our reception area. He came over...then took over! The entire facility is now adorned with art – fun, beautiful, whimsical...It's changed the whole environment. As an organization, we can't say enough about the impact of his contributions”.

Debbie Grabelich
MAKE A WISH FOUNDATION –

“We never dreamed Tom would become such a generous contributor. Tom never says 'enough'... As our needs have grown, so have his donations”.

Ron Settles
CALIFORNIA WATERFOWL ASSOCIATION –

“For the past two years, Tom has framed and mounted waterfowl prints for our auction. We've raised a lot of money because of Tom's generosity”.

Evelyn Jensen
SPCA –

“When Tom advertises his business, he plants a seed in the minds of the community to participate and give back...he certainly does”.

Andrea Lewis
GOLDEN RETRIEVER RESCUE –

“I always have my framing done at ABREU GALLERY... so I sent Tom a letter asking if he could help with a donation for our silent auction, which he kindly agreed to do. When I went to pick up the items, he handed me a very old, beautifully framed English print, which I know had great sentimental value to him. It was a piece that I ended up bidding on, and won! Tom is very special... plus, he does beautiful work”.
